ALLY

PHOTOGRAPHS BY MICHAEL MOORE

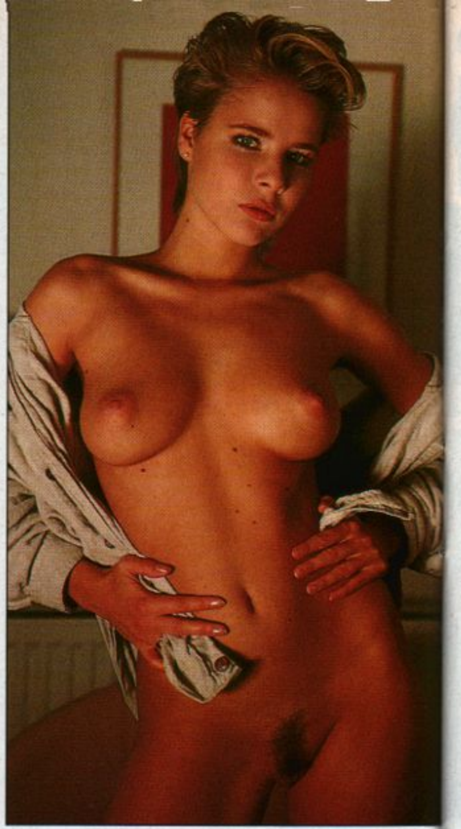
Lovely Ally (short for Alexandra) keeps in shape by burning round her native Birmingham on a bike. When it comes to a different sort of riding she's in no doubt as to her preferences.

"I don't like unfit men – they just collapse in a heap after a while. When I'm at it I get all hot and sweaty, and it takes a strong pair of hands to keep hold of me. I like to work out. My saddle has never let me down, and if anything else is going to come near my pussy, it better be hard-wearing, or it might just melt."

Looking at Ally, we're sure the opposite is likely to happen to Mayfair readers. She admits she gets a thrill from showing off her gorgeous body. "It's a different sort of work out. I like to think of others getting their own sort of exercise over my pictures." There's not much doubt about that.



BETH

PHOTOGRAPHS BY JACK HARRISON

Regular readers will remember Beth from her last appearance in Mayfair. There was no keeping her away after that one. "I wanted to appear again, simply because I love getting letters from your readers who write in to tell me what they are thinking as they look at the photos. I like dressing up, but for this one I asked if I could just roll about on a lovely bed. I meant to keep my pants on just to be a tease, but once I got into it I barely remember taking them off. They had to stop me playing with myself though, the cameraman couldn't concentrate!" Ⓜ

DEE

VE!

Last time she appeared in Mayfair she was simply Dee. But now she's sold the story of her night of passion with Rolling Stone Mick Jagger, we can reveal that her full name is in fact Orsolya Dessy. 'Dee' claims she met Mick in the appropriately named Fortuna Hotel. Lucky devil! Still, here's your chance to have a good look at her for a lot less than it cost him or the News of the World.

GABBY

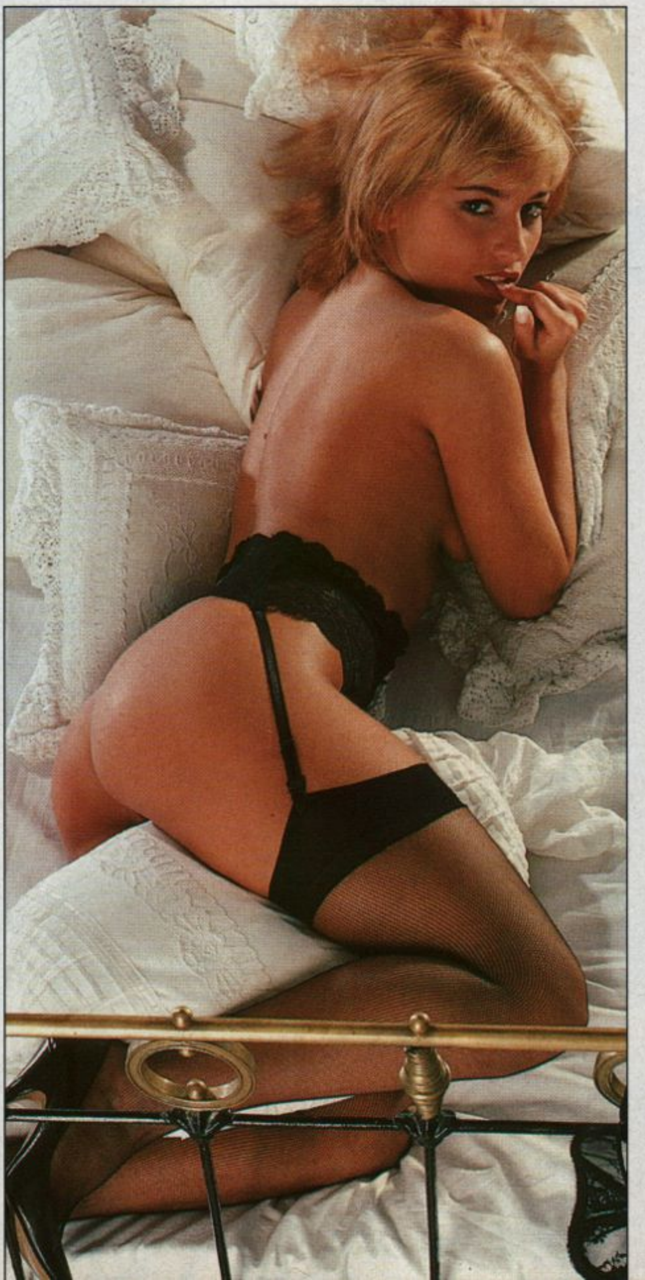
HARRISON

It's her first ever appearance, but 20-year-old Gabby from Ipswich knows where she's heading. She's been modelling clothes for high street chains since she was far too young to appear in these pages, but with passing time she's realised which side her bread is buttered.

"I'm sick of wearing all those clothes. I'd rather dress up in some fantasy gear then strip it off nice and slowly while the camera watches. There's something very erotic about being encouraged to go that little bit further. All the way through I was thinking about who'd be looking at the photos, and what they'd be thinking. You can see from the gleam in my eye how much I enjoyed it. I just started to think sexy thoughts, and the rest came naturally."

Don't be surprised if you see more of Gabby in the future – she's promising us a lot more! Ⓜ



JANIE

PHOTOGRAPHS BY BOB TWIGG

Take one chair, a gold-rimmed mirror, and a horny model and you've got this sex-starved lovely. "I guess I'm just too choosy, although when I'm on my own my pants seem to come off very easily. The best sex is when I've known someone for a while, a couple of hours usually. By then I'll know if he's the right one. From then on I lose all my inhibitions." We can imagine, still waters running deep and all that...

JAYNE & NATASHA

PHOTOGRAPHS
BY GEOFF HOWES

These two local dirty dykes just couldn't keep their clothes on. Floral prints didn't impress when Jayne and Natasha started to touch one another. The silky smooth skin of their inner thighs was just too tempting, and before you could say lezzie lovers they were between each other's legs.

"It's great playing with yourself," said Natasha, "but Jayne knew just which buttons to push and I couldn't resist getting on top of her. I couldn't resist her luscious breasts too, and her nipples stood to attention as soon as I went down on her."

For her part Jayne is no less forthcoming.

"I never knew I had it in me, but lovely Natasha is absolutely irresistible, her sweet lips were like honey to me. We found we have really similar tastes, and in this case, it was each other!" Ⓜ

KERRY

PHOTOGRAPHS BY BOB TWIGG

Bubbly 18-year-old Kerry describes her favourite colours as blue, white and pink, in that order, which explains why she peels off her clothes nice and slowly. "I love keeping a pair of warm socks on whilst I'm in bed, even when the heating is on or I have someone with me. I like to slide my fluffy feet along the back of some horny man, but even better are those long winter afternoons when I'm on my own. I curl up and think about going to sleep, but then my hand always seems to go between my legs, and the next thing I'm playing with myself and thinking of my dream man!"

What does she look for in a dream man? "A sense of humour, a kind personality, and he has to be big and hard enough to stay with me 'till the end." Any qualified volunteers?

SANDRINE

Sandrine is all woman, raven-black hair, and the collars and cuffs match. "I would never dye my hair blonde. In my experience men prefer a natural girl, and I'm far closer to nature than most. There's nothing I like more than outdoor sex followed by a quick drive back to the hotel for the rest of my dirty weekend."

Sandrine likes leather and satin, both in black. "The colour is mysterious and a little scary. I'm like that myself, and I look for it in others. They rarely disappoint me, and I've never had any complaints." She certainly won't get any from us. Complaints, that is...

ZOE

Don't be fooled by the cute smile, if you try to cuddle Zoe you'll soon find yourself alone. "I've had enough of men who think I'm some sort of second mother to them. If I pick someone to come home with me, then I don't want a head on my shoulder, I want it between my legs. There's nothing better than having a tongue in there, warming me up for the main event."

So what's with the chains, Zoe? "That's for me to know and you to find out." Looks like we're going to have to join the queue then!
